Death Investigation

Birmingham, Alabama - Just after noon today Sheriff's Deputies were called to the 100 block of Mimosa Court in Mulga after a 19 year old female was found unresponsive by a family friend.

Preleminary information is the nineteen year old girl lived at the address with her brother and a girl reported to be her brother's girlfriend.

She was last seen alive around 3 am this morning and found dead in a bedroom just after noon today.

At this point there is no apparent cause of death, no sign of foul play and no obvious trauma to the body or sign of forced entry to the residence.

The death at present is classified as suspicious because of her age and no known health problems. Actual cause of death is pending the medical examiners report.

The investigation is ongoing and further information will be released as it becomes available.
